Membership Policies, Fees, and Dues

Last Revised: December 5, 2008

CSYC has been sustained since its founding in 1933 by a philosophy of reliance on its members for operations and improvements. The Club's members share a love for sailing and a respect for the ideals of cooperative work which develop close friendships and camaraderie both on and off the water. Crescent has a rich historic past with an upbeat and active membership enjoying today's sailing lifestyle.

The Club committees organize and manage a full schedule of Junior and Adult educational, social and competitive sailing activities. Crescent is recognized throughout the sailing community for its hospitality and talent.

Applying for Membership

There are two levels of adult membership: Senior and Crew. Senior members can vote, hold office, and apply for dry and wet moorings. Crew members have full access to the Club but cannot vote, hold office, or moor boats.

Membership applications are available on the Club website www.crescentsail.com. All new member applicants require sponsorship letters from three Senior members.

Work Hour Requirements

Senior: 18 hours per year.

Crew: 9 hours per year.

Initiation Fees

Senior: $1,350 with an option to pay in three annual installments of $450, $475, and $500.

Crew: $75.

Annual Dues

Senior: $920.

Crew: $460.

Summer Mooring

Wet: $4.20 per square foot (boat length overall x beam)
